As Klaus moves closer, he teases that some day you might be caught by a big bad wolf... Apparently you don't get the meaning of his warning, but Klaus laughs and apologizes. It was just a little bit of advice. Spending all day working makes him say things he typically wouldn't say. If Klaus had some to your house to wait for you to finish chores, how would you interpret that? Well you're embarrassed now! Klaus warns you to pick your words more carefully in the future. He has to get back to work, and you run out of the house. Klaus can tell that you were embarrassed. This response choice has been changed in the EU version, and the entire dialog about choosing your words has been removed. Instead, he starts by admiring your youthful exuberance, as Klaus is used to being the lead. He continues by saying he finds your assertiveness to be refreshing, then move closer and says it might even be overwhelming. Klaus continues on and advises you to rein in the power you possess, as you are affecting his blood pressure. It is like he is a moth drawn to a flame or a fly caught in a spider's web. They don't notice you, but Mistel sees you standing there, and comments on how his sister and Klaus seem to be enjoying themselves. They finally come over to where you and Mistel are standing, but you're so upset that you run out of the shop. Klaus chases after you, Mistel knows that his sister saw you walk in and wonders why she didn't acknowledge your entrance, but Iris explains that this is a good opportunity for you and Klaus to get closer. Mistel figures that if this little incident ruins your relationship, then it wasn't going to go anywhere anyway. Back outside, you run until you are almost blind-sided by a moving cart. In fact, it is he who wonders if you are too good for an old man like himself. There's nothing that can be done to shrink the age gap between the two of you, but he still wants to be with you. Choice 2: Say nothing. Result: -4000 FP with Klaus Event Helper: Alice Z., @Hentai_sama This formal looking fellow uses flowers and scented oils to create perfumes. He doesn't have a shop where you can buy his creations, as he seems to prefer researching new scents rather than selling the perfumes for profit. He isn't just searching for scents that smell nice, but scents that invigorate or have other affects when used. Klaus has lived in Oak Tree Town for a long time, and you'll meet him from the start of your farming adventure. His house is in the western side of town. Klaus does his scent research inside his house, so while he is working you won't be able to give him a gift. This will typically be Sundays through Thursdays from 8am to 10am, and again from 19:30 to 22:00. On Sundays and Wednesdays he'll be out of town between 11:30 and 18:00.
